Or immediately commit other crimes in the meantime, presuming I will get their other cases. Good Luck to all.

That is very helpful. Generally, the courts can only do one jury trial at a time. They typically "overbook" like the airlines, knowing that many may plead out on the day of trial or be continued. So it is not likely we will need you for both Mack and Ayala. We will have a better idea of which case will go forward the week before the trial. If we start on the 31st, we should be able to complete the trial by September 1. I don't know if Maryclare has anything to add to that.

And as for Russ Eonis, don't worry about him. When defendants find out he is on the case they plead out immediately.

Hi Everyone,

I received some subpoenas for cases that are scheduled for the week of August 31st, 2009.

Unfortunately, I have some conflicts that week. I have 2 cases scheduled for New Bedford Superior and 2 for Brockton Superior Court. So we do not have continuances, I am willing to testify for these cases, but will need some coordination tactic.

Since Nicole and I are scheduled to be in New Bedford Sup on the both cases, can we be scheduled to testify for both cases on the same day? Maybe on Sept 1st, 2009.

Since I am scheduled to be in Brockton Sup on booth cases, can I testify for both cases on the same day? Maybe on Sept 2nd, 2009.

ADA Kristen Stone, Brockton Sup.: Comm. v. [REDACTED] (Custodial chemist, testify for entire case).

ADA Russell Eonas, Brockton Sup.: Comm. v. [REDACTED] (Custodial Lisa Glazer, Confirmatory Annie Dookhan)

ADA Maryclare Flynn, New Bedford Sup.: Comm. v. [REDACTED] (Custodial Nicole Medina, Confirmatory Annie Dookhan)

ADA Robert Kidd, New Bedford Sup.: Comm. v. [REDACTED] (Custodial Nicole Medina, Confirmatory Annie Dookhan)

Not sure if this is going to work. Let me know. Sorry for the inconvenience. I appreciate your assistance.

Thanks,

Annie Khan-Dookhan
